The initiative, knowledge and action provided by G Hanna to keep the process moving forward in the correct direction and to keep me well informed throughout the process were top notch. David-Seller (September 2022)

George(you) being a true gentleman, super patient, quick to get things done and goes above and beyond - along with providing tons of information about the purchase and tenant process. I would suggest one more service to consider and that's to add a video for your listed properties. Also, in today's day and age-trust/respect/proof of works is determined via channels such as Instagram & Tik-Tok as your social media is limited to FB & LinkedIn.
